Dear Miss Faye and the Leggett Family:

The members and friends of the Pentecostal Holiness Church of Canada join with the many voices around the world expressing our love, prayer, and condolences to you all upon hearing of the home going of Bishop James Leggett. His impact at the highest level of Global Christianity finds equal significance in his willingness to minister in the smallest of churches and in one on one conversations with people everywhere. Heaven is made richer and earth less wealthy by his promotion.

The words concerning David in Acts 13 well apply to Bishop Leggett, AFTER, HE SERVED HIS GENERATION IN THE WILL OF GOD, HE FELL ASLEEP. He served with both a Global vision and a Pastors' heart always displaying wisdom, courage, unwavering faith, and on every stage represented the Pentecostal Holiness Church with dignity and distinction. Without question, he is the finest example of a Christian Gentleman and Statesman that I have known. He has been to me for many years my leader, my mentor, and my friend.

Miss Faye, you have been a shining role model for every ministers' wife and woman of God. No man could have gained the level of influence and impact that Bishop Leggett achieved without the prayerful and loving support that you have provided for him. You have been a treasure to him, the family, and the church.

May the Arms of Jesus, the Love of God, and the Comfort of the Holy Spirit surround you and yours until that day when God wipes away all tears and we are united again in His presence.

Because of Calvary,

Gordon McDonald
General Superintendent
