Dear Leggett Family and IPHC Family,

The National Association of Evangelicals, and especially the many leaders who knew and loved Bishop Leggett, join you in grieving his death and celebrating his life.

The list of leadership positions and accomplishments is long in the biography of Bishop James Leggett. He was an amazing, effective and respected leader. He was well known, highly regarded and widely connected among the many evangelical traditions of the National Association of Evangelicals. But, my memories of Bishop Leggett are most about who he was as a person and as a Christian brother. He was a pastor and a friend—kind, gracious, encouraging and always a blessing. His love and legacy are lasting.

In Jesus' Name,

Leith Anderson
President
