Dear Sis. Clara Faey Watts,

I would like to express my sincere and heartfelt condolences to you, and to your family on behalf of myself and the World Missions Commission (WMC) of Pentecostal World Fellowship on the passing of Dr. James Leggett, the former chairman of Pentecostal World Fellowship.

WMC commission was established in the time of his leadership. Dr. James Leggett offered me his full support, and wonderful encouragement as the first chairman. I appreciated highly his leadership. He left a great model as a wise and admirable leader. The example he left, in serving the Lord as an outstanding leader, will surely impact still many in the future. We were blessed in my home country, Finland, by his visit some years ago.

May the Lord's grace together with comfort of the Holy Spirit embrace you during this time of sorrow! However, the day of the resurrection gives us great hope at the time of loss.
