MR. DAVID ROBERSION HONORED AS THE RECIPIENT OF THE 2019 NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE MOSES & GERALDINE KING MISSIONS AWARD

On Sunday evening, August 4th, Mr. David Roberson was honored as the recipient of the 2019 North Carolina Conference Moses & Geraldine King missions award in the Global Outreach service of the North Carolina Conference.

The North Carolina Conference World Missions Ministries established the Moses and Geraldine King Missions Award in 2017 in memory of Moses King and in honor of his surviving spouse, Geraldine "Dean" King. "This award provides our pastors with a means through which they can pay tribute to a layperson of the local church who excels in supporting local and global outreach," said NC Conference Missions Director and Assistant Conference Superintendent Rev. Doug Bartlett.

Moses King was a lifelong member of Goshen Pentecostal Holiness Church, now known as Goshen New Life Church, and was a staunch supporter of the IPHC World Missions efforts. The Moses and Dean King Family Gift and Endowment Fund through the IPH Foundation continue to provide benefit to various ministries throughout the IPHC, including World Missions Ministries.

The criteria for determining a worthy candidate for the King Missions Award include being a person of humility; one who is sacrificial; one who practices excellent stewardship; who supports the local church; who is a pastor's friend; a self-motivator; a team leader; and a hands-on participant. These criteria were developed with direct input from Moses' surviving spouse, Dean, and grandson, Scott King.

Dr. Ryan Jackson, lead pastor of The Capital Church in Garner, NC, nominated the 2019 recipient, David Roberson. Pastor Jackson explained, "During the 10 years I have pastored The Capital Church, I have personally witnessed David's amazing and sacrificial generosity to the Lord and His work—especially to the work of missions. Time and time again, I have seen him go above and beyond to give to missions in ways that most people do not even consider. I know that he has given to the point that many comforts and luxuries usually enjoyed by people of his means have been totally liquidated for the sake of the Kingdom of God. Most people have no idea how much David and Mary, his wife, give to the cause of missions because they continually do so in ways that deflect all attention from their involvement, thereby embodying the spirit of Christlike humility that this award attempts to honor. Furthermore, he and his wife have been tremendously supportive of me as their pastor. I could not think of more deserving recipients of this honor."

About receiving this award, Roberson says, "I am thankful for receiving this honor, especially in light of all that the Kings have done in contributing to World Missions. I am thankful to the Lord for providing me with the resources to be able to give. God has truly blessed me. Although I am grateful for it, I don't need the recognition and to God be all the glory." Roberson also attributed a visit to Turkey several years ago with Eurasia and Middle East Regional Director Bob Cave, as giving him a deep burden to contribute more to World Missions, especially after seeing the numerous mosques there. That scene served as a stark reminder to him of the multitudes around the world who need Jesus.

A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

David & Mary accepting their Award

Previous recipients of the King Missions Award include 2017 winner, Mrs. Sandra Wheeler, of Northwood Temple and 2018 winner, Mrs. JoAnn Pollard, of Tarboro First PH.

World Missions Ministries is honored by the fact that David serves as a member of our general WMM Council. Through his years of service, David has become a trusted confidant and friend. He is not only a generous person with his financial resources but also his time. I admire the fact that David is very involved in his local church, still sings in the choir, and currently serves as the chairman of the Emmanuel College Board of Trustees. His availability to the things of God makes David a consummate role model to many of us. David, we honor you and thank the Lord for you and Mary.

SEVENTH [7TH] QUADRENNIAL GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE IPHC IN ZAMBIA, AFRICA

I was privileged to be invited by Bishop Chilumba Chrispin Zulu, national overseer of the PHC of Zambia, and Rev. Joe Delport, WMM regional director for Southern Africa, to serve as the presiding officer for the seventh Quadrennial General Conference of the PHC of Zambia, August 23-25, 2019 in Kabwe, Zambia. Rev. B.E. Underwood was the only other executive director of WMM to serve as the presiding officer in 1995. General Superintendent James Leggett served as the presiding officer in 1999.

EXCERPT FROM THE ZAMBIA SEVENTH QUADRENNIAL GENERAL CONFERENCE PRINTED MINUTES

"Mission work under the auspices of the Pentecostal Holiness Church began in Central Africa in 1950. Yearly visits were made into this area for some-time by missionaries living in South Africa. In 1953, the first PHC missionary permanently located to Central Africa.

In 1956, the Central Africa conference was organized, covering what is now known as Zimbabwe, Zambia, and Malawi. It operated as such until early June 1966, when the Zimbabwe Conference was officially organized as a separate conference.

At the Quadrennial Conference in 1974, the churches in Malawi formed their own conference, thus leaving the Zambia conference as a separate entity. The Zambia Conference was then divided into three districts, namely: Southern District incorporating Eastern, Central, Southern, Western, and Lusaka Provinces; Copperbelt District incorporating Copperbelt, Part Central, and North-Western Province; and Northern District incorporating Luapula and Northern Provinces.

In 1989, the Zambia Conference was divided into three Conferences (the Districts were elevated to Conferences as there had been a fair share of growth in membership): the Copperbelt Conference, the Northern/Luapula Conference, and the Southern Conference. This brought the Zambia General Conference into being.

In 1996, as work progressed rapidly in the Eastern province of the Southern Conference, it was decided that the Eastern Conference would be created from the Southern Conference.

In 1999, Northern/Luapula Conference was divided to create two Conferences: Northern and Luapula Conferences.

With the work expanding in the Northwestern district of the Copperbelt, in 2003, it was felt that North Western District of the Copperbelt Conference be elevated to Conference status. We now have six conferences in Zambia, namely: Southern, Copperbelt, Eastern, Luapula, Northern, and North Western."

Presiding Bishop Zulu reported that the PHC in Zambia currently has 107,356 members, in 817 churches, and six Conferences.

The 200 plus delegates approved/amended 15 Committee Reports. I have never handled as many 'amendments to the amendment' as I did over the course of the three-day General Conference. The spirited debate was enjoyable!

The 45 delegates of the electoral college for the General Conference Executive Board were composed of all 'General Conference Board Members, outgoing General Conference Executive Board Members, and former National and Conference Overseers.'

A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Myself and Joe with the members of the General Conference Executive Board of Zambia [standing] and the members of the newly elected Men's Ministries Board [seated].

Nominations for all elections were by 'secret ballot.' Bishop Chilumba Chrispin Zulu was re-elected to serve as the national overseer; Bishop Lemmy Chilekwa, assistant national overseer; Bishop Fredrick Maseko Phiri, general secretary; Bishop Casius Tembo, general treasurer; Bishop Festus Mwila Muselepete, member at large; Bishop Charles Mapulanga, member at large; and Bishop Simyanga, member at large.

I am always honored to travel and serve with Rev. Joe Delpert. He is a phenomenal missionary that is dearly loved by those who he and Maggie serve in the Southern Region of Africa.

I was privileged beyond measure to serve this part of our faith family. Thank you, Presiding Bishop Zulu and Rev. Delpert, for affording me this once in a lifetime opportunity.

25TH PENTECOSTAL WORLD CONFERENCE [PWC], CALGARY, CANADA

I left Johannesburg, South Africa, and flew directly to Calgary, Canada, to attend the Pentecostal World Conference, which was celebrating its 25th global gathering in beautiful, Calgary, Canada, August 27-30, 2019.

In its Executive Committee meeting, IPHC General Superintendent Dr. Doug Beacham was elected to serve as the secretary of the PWC for the 2019-2022 term. Dr. Ryan Jackson, pastor of The Capital PHC served as a presenter in one of eight Affinity Group tracks titled, 'Mission in the Western Context – The 'New Apologetic.'" Rev. Max Barroso, director of The Awakening/regional director of South American for WMM and a member of the PWC World Missions Commission [WMC] Lead Team, served as a presenter in the "Millennial Leadership – The Current and Future Look of Evangelism and Discipleship" Affinity Group track. Both men represented the IPHC with distinction.

Prior to the PWC, the PWC World Missions Commission [WMC] held its annual meeting on August 25 and 26th. Representing IPHC WMM in this meeting were Rev. Max Barroso, director of The Awakening

& regional director for South America/WMM and WMC Lead Team member; Dr. Moses Kumar, general superintendent of the PHC in South India; Rev. Joel Dibetsoe, national overseer of the PHC in South Africa; and Rev. Linwood Berry, regional director of The Mediterranean Region/WMM.

Bishop Gordon and Glenda McDonald, general superintendent of the PHC of Canada [PWC Advisory Committee member and a key member of the PWC planning committee], hosted a get together for all PHC of Canada and IPHC delegates attending the PWC. Joining this event [in addition to persons mentioned above] were General Superintendent Rev. Randy Carter, Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Inc.; Bishop Stan Reynolds, conference superintendent of the Pacific Western Network Ministries and WMM Council member; Bishop Preston and Kathy Mathena, conference superintendent of the Appalachian Conference; Dr. Harold Hunter, director of IPHC Archives & Research Center; and IPHC affiliates, Bishop Jamir Carvalho and Bishop Elisiaros Dos Santos, Wesleyan Methodist Church of Brazil in addition to members of the PHC of Canada. It is always good to be with family.

IN CONCLUSION

I am honored to serve you in this capacity. Thank you for enabling us to be a 'People of Promise' in so many places that need Hope!

'The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.'

MEET THE SALAZARS

During their 15 years of missionary service in Belgium, Mauricio and Lulu Salazar shared the gospel with tens of thousands of people and led hundreds to salvation. Additionally, they established two Coffee Houses in Brussels, built several cross-cultural international churches, founded and directed the Logos Bible School, and officially registered the IPHC in Belgium, which is now called Crosspoint.

Their ministry continues now in France, where God has placed them. At this time, they are reaching out to a humanistic and lost society with less than 1% born again believers. They have worked in different areas of France through evangelistic art events, Bible Studies, personal evangelism, and intense prayer. Please pray for France and that God continues to open doors in the north and south so that significant groups and churches are planted.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

GLOBAL OUTREACH

IT IS ONLY HALFTIME

It is time to check the scoreboard. How much have you and your church given for the Global Outreach Offering this year? This annual collection truly reaches around the world, helping to provide resources for IPHC missionaries and national leaders serving in many countries. Churches are built, land is purchased, Bible schools are enhanced, training conferences are held, projects are completed; the list goes on and on. Many IPHC churches have been raising their funds for this offering since the beginning of the year. What does a glance at the scoreboard now reveal?

If you are not satisfied with what the numbers show next to your name, take heart. IT IS ONLY HALFTIME. The game is not over. There is time for more work to be done! You have until the end of the year (December 31) to contribute to the 2019 GO Offering. If you have not yet given toward this important cause, there is still time to post a great score in the second half.

It is time for conference bishops to exhort their conference mission directors; it is time for those conference mission directors to encourage the pastors; and it is time for the pastors to rally their people to give. More than a 'pep talk' is needed. Our people need to be hearing stirring speeches from the pulpit about the urgency of the Great Commission. If you have not yet given your GO Offering, that zero next to your name can be replaced in the second half. And, if you have given, there is still time to add to your total. Thank you for making each moment count. Remember, IT IS ONLY HALFTIME.

BETHELGRAM SCHOOL

BY MICHAEL JOHN

Bethelgram School has recently reopened after five years of its unfortunate closure. We were wondering whether or not children would come, and God surprised us with 55 kids who arrived for admission in the first two weeks after the reopening. These kids brought life to the campus again.

The Lord has proven that He is alive and always fighting for those who do what is right. The leadership here is now fully convinced that God's powerful hand is upon the tribe of the IPHC in India and that any force who tries to destroy it will be defeated.

Now, the construction of a new boarding home will begin soon. We do not have enough words to thank God for His provision in this. We hope the boarding hall for 300 kids will be ready by this Christmas.

MINISTRY IN THAILAND

BY ALBERT & JIEP GONZALES

We are grateful to God for the privilege to continue serving Him as missionaries here in Thailand. We returned to Thailand with thanksgiving in our hearts on May 24, after our six-month furlough in the United States. Upon arrival, we are already praising the Lord for five Buddhists who received the Lord Jesus Christ recently at our church in Don Muang, Bangkok in various Sunday services. Moreover, the number of members is increasing, including the children. We are praying and hoping to buy the property beside our church. If the Lord is leading you to be part of this vision, kindly send your donation to WMM project number 74520P. This church is the first IPHC church in Thailand.

Please continue to pray with World Missions Ministries that more people around the world will hear the gospel, receive the gospel, and give their lives to Christ as they experience His love through the IPHC.

KOMAY PHC JHARKHAND

BY MICHAEL JOHN

Traveling to Komay village for the dedication of the newly constructed church building taught us what Jesus meant when he said: "to the ends of the earth." It tested our courage and driving skills, as there was hardly any road to drive on. After reaching Komay, my heart filled with gratitude for our IPHC church planters who walked for hours to reach the village almost a decade ago to share the love of Christ.

Right now, Pastor Matthias is leading this ministry and, through the last two years, the church has grown fast. As people began coming, Pastor Matthias realized their need for a building to worship in. At that time, the church in Komay Village began to pray for this need. When we started the Building Together project last January, it challenged Pastor Matthias, and he personally started raising funds for the new building. Slowly, the people of God started joining in. Now, here we are witnessing a miracle that is only possible when we walk in faith.

UPDATES

RECENT MINISTRY - NEPAL

BY DANNY WILLIAMS

Chase Granstaff and I recently traveled to multiple locations in Nepal, holding four "inquiry meetings" with current and new pastors. The presence and power of God (especially in the prayer times) were evident and refreshing. We are excited about the young pastors who are joining our IPHC network. They are capable young men.

Judith, Kristina, and Marites held a ladies' meeting in Kathmandu. Several pastors' wives and lady pastors attended. The presence of the Holy Spirit was beautiful, and we were all encouraged. It requires tremendous strength and courage for a female to be in leadership in this culture.

Please join World Missions Ministries in joint prayers that both women and young men will continue to rise up in the power of the Holy Spirit around the world.

STORIES FROM THE FIELD

REAGAN CASE

Recently, Reagan Case, an On My Way participant with The Awakening, was able to visit and preach at a church in Uganda, Africa, which was built through the faith and generosity of her own grandfather. Below are the remarks she had upon return from her time there.

It is a building with a dirt floor, wooden framing, and metal sheets in Uganda, Africa. However, it is so much more than that to me. It is a place my grandfather once set foot in, and where he decided to plant a seed. It is a place built in memory of his late and beloved sister, Sue Price. It is a place where lives are being changed, and eternities are being found all because of my grandpa's generous heart.

He planted a seed 19 years ago, and the harvest is still being reaped. As I stood before the congregation, I shared with them that my grandpa was the builder of the church, and their faces radiated with joy. They welcomed me and honored me with beautiful smiles and thankful hearts. As I made my way to an old wooden pew and sat down, I could not help but think about the many people that had sat in that same pew and experienced freedom and life change.

A man with a love for missions and a giving heart has affected people he has never met. I will never forget that day and how special that opportunity was to see the impact my grandpa has made by giving to missions. Missions has changed my life and given me opportunities that I could never imagine. I will always be amazed at how God brought me to the Sue Price Memorial Church.

In a village in Uganda, Africa, there is a place where people have a community to worship with and lift up the name of Jesus. There is a place of hope and security for the hurting and broken people of Uganda. May the Sue Price Memorial Church continue to be a light in the darkness, and may the generosity of Larry Case be known forever.

CARL & CAMILLA STURKIE

CARL & CAMILLA STURKIE

During their time on the field from 1978 to 2012, Carl and Camilla Sturkie lived in Zambia, Kenya, Malawi, and South Africa. Additionally, while the two did not live there, they also served in Botswana. Overall, the Sturkies served on the World Missions field for 32 years, and both of them still claim that missions is the call of God on their lives.

Upon return to the United States after retirement, Carl and Camilla made their home in Lexington, SC. In 2010, Carl was asked to go to Holmes Bible College to conduct the building program on the new campus, and he is still currently serving at the college.

When asked if they had any advice for the up and coming generations of missionaries, the couple stated, "If He calls you, He will meet your needs." This serves as a reminder of God's faithfulness to those who are obedient to His call on their lives.

Please join World Missions Ministries in our continual prayer for Carl and Camilla who, in retirement, are still fulfilling His purpose and mission on their lives by serving and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

If you would like to send a card in honor of the Sturkies for their time of service, please direct all mail to 1860 Old Orangeburg Rd, Lexington, SC 29073.
