COFFEE HOUSE MINISTRIES

The Word to the World through the Marketplace

A man walked into a coffee house in Belgium. The snowy cold made the friendly laughter of those with hands gripped around warm coffees seem inviting. He ordered, was pulled into a conversation, and heard the Gospel, maybe even for the first time.

Stories such as this are shared regularly from our different coffee houses around the world. At each one, strangers become disciples of Jesus, the hopeless and hurting find hope and healing, and those who walk through the doors bound find freedom.

“Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.”

Ephesians 3:20-21

A large portion of the world’s population engages in the marketplace every day. Coffee houses provide an opportunity to encounter these people during their daily activities. For decades, this non-threatening atmosphere has proven to be productive in producing lasting relationships and an open door to share the hope we have in Jesus. Results are significant, with some coffee houses seeing as many as 30 people come to know Christ in one month.

There are two significant purposes for establishing coffee houses overseas. First, they facilitate evangelistic opportunities in areas otherwise closed to the Gospel. Second, coffee houses help to establish new churches in order to grow the national church and the global body of Christ.

Coffee houses are strategically placed and are designed for maximum ministry effectiveness. Each one serves as a bridge between the Church and the community of non-believers. Coffee House Ministries’ priority is the Word reaching the world through daily marketplace settings. Coffee House takes Jesus to the people where they are!
