PACKING LIST

FIRST THINGS FIRST!

- Positive attitude and an open mind
- Bible, pen and notepad/journal
- Snacks – Feel free to bring your own breakfast items, snacks, drinks, etc.
- Spending Money- Since meals are included once you're onsite, you'll only need to bring money for any concession items or souvenirs.

WHAT CLOTHES SHOULD I PACK?

- Clothes for three full days
- Think modest, casual, and comfortable. The temperature should range in the low-to-mid 90's with at least a 50% chance of thunderstorms nearly every day that week. Shorts should be modest length –no exposed midriffs or boxers.
- Be sure to bring comfortable shoes. (You'll get in LOTS of steps...)
- Lightweight jacket
- If you choose to wear jeans, please make sure holes do not expose your anterior or posterior. (We don't want to see your glory!)
- Speaking of modesty, be sure your swimwear and nightwear is, too! No bikinis or speedos—modesty is the rule.
- Small umbrella/rain coat

WHAT OTHER PERSONAL ITEMS SHOULD I PACK?

- Twin sheets, blanket and pillow, or sleeping bag
- Towel
- Sandals, flip flops, etc.
- Toiletries and personal hygiene items
- Soap, shampoo, deodorant, toothbrush/paste, etc.
- Be sure to bring sunscreen!
